2015 SCHOOL OF CS&D APPLICATION PROCESS: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When is the deadline to submit the paper based application?
Monday, February 2, 2015 by 5PM EST

Where do I submit my application?
CCI Advising Center – UCC4115. Students are encouraged to hand deliver the materials if they live in Tallahassee, otherwise, the address is located on the application checklist online.

What are my chances of getting in?
There is no definitive way to answer this question. This applicant pool varies each year; therefore, it is impossible to predict an individual’s chances of being admitted.

Can I submit a resume or letters of recommendation?
No. Additional materials beyond what is required for the application will not be accepted.

Should I resubmit my online registration form if I filled it out incorrectly?
Do not resubmit the form. Just make the changes on the form you have already printed.

Do I need to provide official transcripts with my application?
FSU students can submit unofficial transcripts off the myFSU portal; however, transfer students are required to submit official transcripts (and include the transcripts as part of their application package – do not send them separately).

Additionally, although transfer students may have already submitted official transcripts to the Office of Admissions, the School of Communication Science & Disorders needs their own copy. We will not request that transcripts be forwarded from Admissions.

Transfer Students: How do I submit proof of a spring 2015 AA degree from a Florida public institution?
Acceptable forms of proof include: Certified application for spring graduation or a letter (on official letterhead) from your current institution (academic advisor or Registrar’s office) certifying that per successful completion of your spring 2015 schedule, you will receive your AA degree.

I am simultaneously completing my high school diploma and AA from a Florida public institution. How do I submit proof of the 2015 AA degree from a Florida public institution?
We will accept a letter (on official letterhead from an academic advisor or Registrar’s office representative) explaining that you will complete your AA requirements upon the completion of your spring 2015 class schedule but that the actual AA degree will not post until your high school diploma posts.

When/How will I be notified of the admissions decision?
Students will find out via email (to the address they provide on the online registration form) on Friday, February 27 by 5PM.
When an application is submitted please complete the following steps before accepting the application packet:

1. Have the student complete the CSD sign-in sheet
